- 21.2 A waiver by a Party of any breach of the terms of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach.
- 21.3 To constitute a valid waiver, the terms of the waiver must be exchanged between the relevant Parties in writing.

22. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, unenforceable or in conflict with any applicable law, treaty or regulation related to this Agreement or its performance, that provision shall be deemed to no longer form part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions shall remain in force.

23. Order of precedence

If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the text of the body of this Agreement, its Annexes and/or any amendments to this Agreement under Article 20, such conflict or inconsistency shall be resolved by interpreting the components of this Agreement in accordance with the following order of precedence:

- (a) subsequent amendments to this Agreement under Article 20;
- (b) the text of the body of this Agreement;
- (c) subsequent amendments to the Annexes under Article 20; and
- (d) the Annexes.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. Each counterpart constitutes the agreement of each Party which has executed and delivered that counterpart to the other parties. Each executed counterpart is an original but the executed counterparts together constitute one and the same Agreement.

25. Accession

- 25.1 Any postal operator possessing full autonomy of the matters provided for in this Agreement may be invited by a Party to the Agreement to accede to the Agreement.
- 25.2 Accession to the Agreement shall be by invitation of a Party to the Agreement and the approval of a majority of the Parties to the detailed terms of accession as they relate to each invited postal operator.

- 16.3 Withdrawal from this Agreement by a Party shall be without prejudice to any other rights of the Parties accrued up until the date of withdrawal.
- 16.4 As a condition of withdrawal, a Party must enter into an agreement with all other Parties to maintain the obligations set forth in Articles 8, 9, and 10 for as long as the relevant data are retained by the withdrawing Party.
- 16.5 This Agreement may only be terminated by written mutual agreement of all of the Parties to it at the time of its termination.

17. Dispute resolution

- 17.1 If any dispute arises under or in connection with this Agreement the concerned Parties shall attempt to resolve such disputes amicably by referring the issue to the respective heads of the international business units of those Parties for discussions and with the aim of resolving the dispute. If this referral fails to achieve a resolution to the dispute, then the matter shall be referred to the respective chief executive officers of the concerned Parties for review and discussion with the aim of finding a resolution.
- 17.2 Any dispute which cannot be resolved in accordance with Article 17.1 shall be referred to arbitration for final settlement under the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (the Rules) by three arbitrators who have substantial experience in business disputes and appointed in accordance with the Rules. Unless the Parties agree otherwise, the place of arbitration shall be determined by the arbitrators, and the arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the English language.
- 17.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article 17, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from applying to a court of competent jurisdiction for injunctive relief pending the resolution of a dispute in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Commercial nature of the Agreement

This is a commercial contract and not an agreement subject to public international law. It binds only the entities which are Parties to it and not their respective governments. By their signatures, the authorized representatives of the Parties warrant that their employing organizations have independent authority to enter into and be obligated by such commercial contractual agreements.

19. Language

The Parties agree that the language of their correspondence and communication at the administrative level shall be in English or any other language which two or more of them agree to for discussions relevant only to those Parties.

20. Amendments

- 20.1 Any amendment to this Agreement shall be made in writing and signed by, or on behalf of, each of the Parties
- 20.2 Changes to the information presented in Annexes A, C, D, E, F, and G are anticipated and are not considered to be amendments to this Agreement. Such changes must be notified to the Parties in writing at least 30 business days in advance of the change if they require operational changes or changes to the Systems of the other Parties, and as soon as possible if not.

21. Waiver

- 21.1 No delay or omission by a Party to exercise any right or power accruing upon any non-compliance or default by the other Party with respect to any of the terms of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such non-compliance or default.
- 21.2 A waiver by a Party of any breach of the terms of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach.
- 21.3 To constitute a valid waiver, the terms of the waiver must be exchanged between the relevant Parties in writing.

22. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, unenforceable or in conflict with any applicable law, treaty or regulation related to this Agreement or its performance, that provision shall be deemed to no longer form part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions shall remain in force.

23. Order of precedence

If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the text of the body of this Agreement, its Annexes and/or any amendments to this Agreement under Article 20, such conflict or inconsistency shall be resolved by interpreting the components of this Agreement in accordance with the following order of precedence:

- (a) subsequent amendments to this Agreement under Article 20;
- (b) the text of the body of this Agreement;
- (c) subsequent amendments to the Annexes under Article 20; and
- (d) the Annexes.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. Each counterpart constitutes the agreement of each Party which has executed and delivered that counterpart to the other parties. Each executed counterpart is an original but the executed counterparts together constitute one and the same Agreement.

25. Accession

- 25.1 Any postal operator possessing full autonomy of the matters provided for in this Agreement may be invited by a Party to the Agreement to accede to the Agreement.
- 25.2 Accession to the Agreement shall be by invitation of a Party to the Agreement and the approval of a majority of the Parties to the detailed terms of accession as they relate to each invited postal operator.

26. Entire Agreement

This is the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter. It supersedes and replaces any written or oral arrangements, correspondence, conversations and documents made or exchanged between the Parties prior to its execution. Any modifications made to this Agreement as well as to the periodically updated and duly approved Annexes shall have no effect unless explicit and confirmed in a written document signed by the Parties hereto.

- 20.2 Changes to the information presented in Annexes A, C, D, E, F, and G are anticipated and are not considered to be amendments to this Agreement. Such changes must be notified to the Parties in writing at least 30 business days in advance of the change if they require operational changes or changes to the Systems of the other Parties, and as soon as possible if not.

21. Waiver

- 21.1 No delay or omission by a Party to exercise any right or power accruing upon any non-compliance or default by the other Party with respect to any of the terms of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such non-compliance or default.
- 21.2 A waiver by a Party of any breach of the terms of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach.
- 21.3 To constitute a valid waiver, the terms of the waiver must be exchanged between the relevant Parties in writing.

22. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, unenforceable or in conflict with any applicable law, treaty or regulation related to this Agreement or its performance, that provision shall be deemed to no longer form part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions shall remain in force.

23. Order of precedence

If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the text of the body of this Agreement, its Annexes and/or any amendments to this Agreement under Article 20, such conflict or inconsistency shall be resolved by interpreting the components of this Agreement in accordance with the following order of precedence:

- (a) subsequent amendments to this Agreement under Article 20:
- (b) the text of the body of this Agreement;
- (c) subsequent amendments to the Annexes under Article 20; and
- (d) the Annexes.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. Each counterpart constitutes the agreement of each Party which has executed and delivered that counterpart to the other parties. Each executed counterpart is an original but the executed counterparts together constitute one and the same Agreement.

25. Accession

- 25.1 Any postal operator possessing full autonomy of the matters provided for in this Agreement may be invited by a Party to the Agreement to accede to the Agreement.
- 25.2 Accession to the Agreement shall be by invitation of a Party to the Agreement and the approval of a majority of the Parties to the detailed terms of accession as they relate to each invited postal operator.

26. Entire Agreement

This is the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter. It supersedes and replaces any written or oral arrangements, correspondence, conversations and documents made or exchanged between the Parties prior to its execution. Any modifications made to this Agreement as well as to the periodically updated and duly approved Annexes shall have no effect unless explicit and confirmed in a written document signed by the Parties hereto.
